

EPFL Xplore 2020-2021

Road to Poland - September 2021

EPFL Xplore is a student association whose aim is to build a Martian Rover to participate in international competitions.

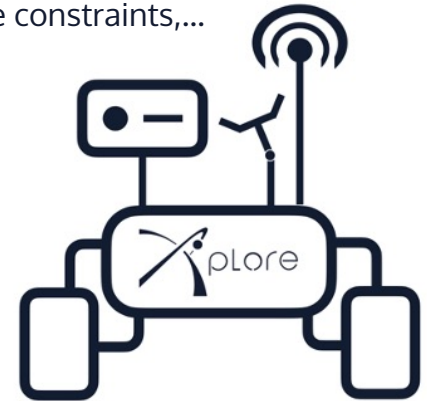

The team is made up of Bachelor and Master students from various sections of EPFL.

Students can put into practice their theoretical knowledge and learn how to work in a team.

The whole Rover is designed by students getting advices from Professional Engineers, from start-ups to NASA, on multiple subjects.

The team members develop non-academic skills such as manufacturing, testing, working with straight cost and time constraints,...

Robotics and Space Event organized by the European Space Foundation and Mars Society
Polska, and closely followed by the European Space Agency (ESA).

4 Main Tasks to achieve :

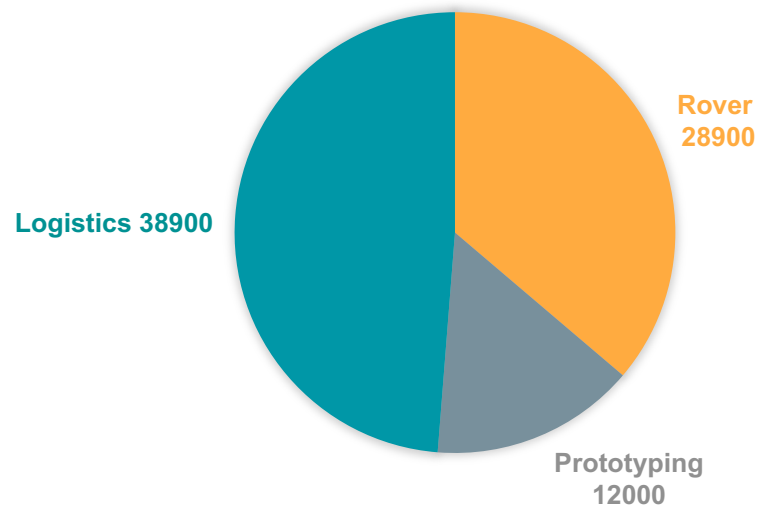

- Science Mission
- Retrieval and Delivery Mission
- Equipment Servicing Mission
- Autonomous Navigation Mission

56 Competing Teams from 16 Countries, 6 Continents in 2019

This Cost Estimation illustrates the overall cost of the project. The budget is managed by the CFO of the association and under supervision of the VITA laboratory at EPFL.

As we strive for excellence, the cost are relatively high and the success of the project is greatly dependent on your support.

OVERALL COST 79800

The EPFL Xplore members are the future generation of engineers. By supporting us, you help to make tomorrow's world better.

It makes your brand again more visible. The competition and the events on the campus gather people from all around the world.

As we represent EPFL and Switzerland, we will develop innovative ideas to reach the top and we will always aim for Swiss excellence.

We need you !
